

FIRST CHAIR BED - PAN

The original design was by two Swedish surgeons described in the Lancet, 1947 and was used in the Montréal Neurological Institute. When Dr. H. W. Schwartz, of Victoria General hospital, Halifax, NS saw this model being used he had the VG hospital engineer department, copy the design for the hospital. Nurses then added padding to the back and also added breaks.